

University of Essex Library's Eggcellent Easter Hunt

If you'd like to take part in our Easter scavenger hunt and receive a creme egg simply find the correct answers to the questions below and hand back your completed sheet to the library helpdesk. Follow the classmark by browsing either the shelves or our catalogue to find both the title and the answer. To be entered into our prize draw and have the chance to win an Amazon voucher provide your details in the box below. Happy hunting!

1. The idea of the Easter bunny was first recorded in Germany in the 1500s. Which animal was it initially based on?

Hint: Floor 5 Classmark PQ 7797.3.I7

Answer:

2. Easter Island belongs to which South American colony?

Hint: Floor 3 Classmark F 3100.C5

Answer:

3. The imperial coronation egg gifted from the Tsar to Empress Alexandra Fyodorovna was created by which famous jeweller?

Hint: Floor 3 Classmark F 1219.S6

Answer:

4. Which well known chocolate egg is banned from the USA?

Hint: Floor 5 Classmark PT 921

Answer:

5. Which scholarly monk claimed that the pagan Anglo-Saxon Eosturmonath (equivalent of April) "was once called after a goddess... named Eostre, in whose honour feasts were celebrated"?

Hint: Floor 2 Classmark QB 213

Answer:

Name:

Email:

